DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicant's extensive amendments to the claims necessitated this election of species requirement on account of additional undue burden on the Examiner.

This requirement is, therefore, deemed proper.

The species are as follows:

Species I: Image processing apparatus that uses a correlation decision to determine the pixel of interest when interpolating, drawn to Figs. 12 – 19.

Species II: Image processing apparatus that uses the feedback loop from the frame memory that uses the already-interpolated pixels to determine further interpolation, drawn to Figs. 20 – 24.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species I: 27 – 31, 34, 36, 39.

Species II: 32, 35, 37, 40.

The following claim(s) are generic: 21 – 26, 33, 38.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The main special technical feature of the first species is the correlation decision shown in Fig. 18. This species determines the pixel of interest by outputting a mean value (ST45) of the pixel area in question and calculates using linear regression.

This differs from the second species in that second species foregoes this particular correlation decision, opting instead to use the generated signals of selected pixels stored in the result memory (ST59, Fig. 21.) This feedback loop as shown in the block diagram of Fig. 20 does not actively select the neighborhood through which color interpolation is calculated, rather uses part of the information from previously calculated values to calculate a regression line from the current pixel in question.

A telephone call was made to Jason W. Rhodes on 27 May 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
